The present growth of Mt. Sterling is without precedent. We have an opportunity in which a united effort can accomplish much. Capital must be encouraged.

Circuit Court is in session. The grand jury has much to do, and under oath it will be done, free from favoritism. The law knows no man or men. The protection of lives, property and the morals of the community are with these chosen citizens of our county. Be true to your oaths.

It may be our Republican friends are to be disappointed in regard to our county races. The best of feeling prevails and in most offices there will be no contest. We are happy to see this spirit, because nominees can enter the race without being handicapped by taking time to make up. Montgomery County Democracy will be united.

SILVER LINING.

Last week it appeared the completion of the water plant was to be delayed on account of the way parties interested considered their rights, but this week all hindrances have been removed and work will be pushed forward as rapidly as weather will permit.

NOT BLOW.

Every manufacturing plant in Mt. Sterling is taxed to its limit. The cry is more men, greater facilities. Look out for new industries and locate them here! It is a truth that Mt. Sterling does more business to the square foot than any other city in the South.

For the offices now contested, in order to have a strong ticket, free of any weak points, the selection of available material is necessary. One strong in party convictions, with moral courage, strengthens the party. Whoever the nominee may be he will find the defeated candidate ready to do service in bringing out the vote. Party organization is necessary.

Not long ago one of our most capable and prominent citizens suffered defeat, but right won above aspiration and he came out in a manly card pledging his support to the victor, to have it hurled back at him with the revengful declaration: "He had it to do." Avoid such unkind thrusts, for it is the people that select their candidates and individuals are only units. He who would thus scorn manliness is unworthy any honor.

GOOD MEN.

It is the duty of every party to offer for office its best men to fill the places of public trust, and the people who compose the parties should consider every man's fitness. For instance, for County Judge the applicant should be a man posted in law just the same as an incumbent of the Supreme Court; attentive, above reproach, with backbone to discharge the duties of the office to the letter; industrious, free from intoxicants. No reflections in this for Judge Hazelrigg, we have a modle

A man to fill so responsible a place should be considered just as we would one looking for a position on the farm, in the factory or in the store.

Democrats are declaring for such in the main. Republicans have been heard to say if such and such a man is nominated we will not bring out opposition. Well, of course, it is gratifying to have our action approved, but we do not ask any advice from this source.

The Democratic nominees for Councilmen of Mt. Sterling are each business men, men who will consider the interests of the greatest number. During the coming term there will be much to be considered, and careful, wise men are needed. Within the next few years we will be putting in a system of sewerage. It should be in course of construction now, for the protection of health is most essential. Then Mt. Sterling will be called on to take steps in regard to right-of-way for electric plants, railroad lines and so on.

AN INTIMATION.

The Morning Herald, of Lexington, on Sunday morning issued an 18 page religious supplement giving the pictures of the pastors of the congregations, pictures of the church buildings in that city and a history of each.

On the first page of the cover was a representation of Christ upon the cross.

On the last page of the cover was a two-color advertisement of a whisky firm, representing a whisky bottle surrounded by a picture of Uncle Sam together with a display advertisement of the excellent qualities of the whisky.

We regret to know that there is in Kentucky an editor with such a conception of propriety and with so little regard for religious work that he would insert a whisky advertisement in such a paper, especially when there is on front page a full page representation of the suffering Savior, who died to save men from the hell to which the use of whisky sends thousands of men annually. You can imagine how the Christian people feel over such thoughtlessness.

Thomas Johnson, Democrat, ex-Kentuckian, is Mayor of Cleveland, Ohio. Carter Harrison, of Kentucky ancestry, succeeds himself as Mayor of Chicago, and Geo. W. Biard will succeed himself as Mayor of Mt. Sterling. Cities of much commercial interests have Democratic Mayors. Why? Is it not because the people know that the very principles of Democracy oppose combines or jobbery.

Mrs. Bettie Williams has been appointed to take the school census. The patrons should give her all needed co-operation that the list may be complete.

Southern Queen Red Bermuda Yellow Jersey Seed Sweet Potatoes at Sewell's.

Mrs. S. K. Ford, who has been visiting friends here and in Bath county, will return to her home in Lexington to-day.

AN INTERESTING CITY.

The Southern Metropolis—New Orleans—situated near the mouth of the great Mississippi river is without doubt the most picturesque and interesting Southern City—the richest in historic interest and quaintest in old world appearance of any in America. It has figured more prominently than any other in contemporary literature, being the scene of several of the most fascinating American works of fiction. The City possesses unique interest for the Kentuckian, it being the place of the chief battle in our war with England in 1812, when Kentucky Riflemen led by "Old Hickory," licked the British Lion into quiescence. There are the famous Eades jetties, a United States mint, famous buildings rich in historic interest and above all that most curious thing in America—the French Quarter—a foreign city, separated from the rest only by an ordinary street. It is like a visit to Paris France to step across Canal street and hear only the lingo of the Frenchman. How charming to visit the Cafes and other buildings forever made famous by Geo. W. Cable in his charming stories "Old Creole Days," "The Taxidermist," "Posson Jone," etc. A rare opportunity of visiting this charming, interesting Southern city is offered the business man and pleasure seeker in May. A one fare for the round trip with special rates at hotels. The occasion is the meeting of the Southern Baptist Convention. Any one may go. For information call on or address J. W. Hedden.

LAND, STOCK AND CROP.

James Magowan has sold to Fletcher Mann, of Paris, a pair of mules for $550.

Jas. R. Wilson has sold to J. Will Clay 9900 pounds of tobacco at 8 cents straight.

At Oldham Bros. & Co.'s are many attractions for the week beginning to-day, among which are lines of shirt waists, men styles in white goods, beautiful silk waists, patterns, elegant trimmings, women's furnishings. Something new every day.

At Guthrie, Ky., no Easter services were held in any of the churches, numerous cases of small-pox having been reported. Eighteen families have left there within the past week.

Judge W. M. Beckner, of Winchester, has returned from Europe and was in the city on legal business last week. He is in fine health and is hopeful of a prosperous future. We did not discuss political policies.

Jas. E. Clay delivered to Jonas Weil, of Lexington, buyer for Nelson Morris, of Chicago, 100 cattle, weighing 1,460 pounds average; price 5 cents.—Kentuckian Citizen.

J. Clay Cooper, Com'r, on yesterday sold to R. A. Mitchell 717½ acres of land in Carter county for $2,750. It is known as Enterprise land.
